LEARN TO IDENTIFY A BLACK-CAPPED CHICKADEE

- All-black cap and chin, with white cheeks
- Gray back and wings
- Small, active bird with a large round head
- Light belly, often with warm tones in flanks
- Often visits bird feeders, and can be recognized by their distinctive two-note song or “chick-a-dee-dee-dee” call

Photo: Matt MacGillivray